Miss Clemma Linn gave a dancing Stella Black, of St. Louis.

Arc lights and Japanese lanterns made the beautiful expanse of lawn as bright as one could wish, the trees casting enough shadow to make a tete-a-tete corner here and there. A platform was erected near the porch, the smooth surface of which made waitzing delightful, face of which made waitzing delightful, and Watson's orchestra in the shadow of D., Kansas City, Mo. the porch played seductive alra.

The parlors were canvased, that those who preferred might dance indoors, and a punch bowl in the hall was surrounded with pink and white sweet pease and a pink shaded banquet lamp close by produced a dainty effect.

Small tables in the dining room were spread with embroidered linen, and on each a nosegay of violet shaded sweet pease assisted in carrying out the heliotrope scheme which prevailed here. Great clusters of wild asters which are of this hue were massed on the sideboard, and on a larger table which stood in the bay window, in the center of which was a tall lamp with a heliotrope | Illinois to remain until September. shade. ODD FELLOWS.

Home-Rebeksh Notes,

The estimated cost of the maintenance including food, salaries of help, heat, light, water and other incidental expenses connected with the Massachusetts Odd Fellows' home and its management, aggregates the sum of $3.53 per week per inmate. Prince Regent lodge of Odd Fellows in Glossop, England, was instituted in 1814 and has 1,287 members.

Iowa seems to be the great Rebekah state this year. There have been instituted 55 lodges of the degree since Jan. 1, 1808, Concordia Rebekah lodge of New York reports its assets as aggregating $3,827.57. The widow of a man not an Odd Fellow may gain membership in a Rebekah lodge through the application of her father or brother if the father or brother be a member of the order in good standing.

The grand lodge of Arkansas voted $300 to the president of the Rebekah state convention for reliroad fare for one year.

The average membership in the Rebekah lodges in New Hampshire is 155. Fifty-five Rebakah lodges instituted in Kansas in one year is certainly a remarka-

There was more silence. "I'm hungry as a bear. What's that? No. I had watermelon for lunch. If you wait till after dinner, I'll be starved." He listened again.

"You know I can't go to a restaurant for dinner. I'm strapped-tomorrow's payday," and there was an awful anxiety in his voice.

There was another intermission, but he didn't go out, but staid till the curtain went up again.

"Of course I'll promise. Yes, sure. Hey? Say that again. Yes, I'll be on time. I should say so, A square meal will do. No. I didn't understand. All He started to hang up the telephone, but did not do so. "Hang it, why can't she stay at home? Well, I don't care. Hey? Well, suppose she is your mother-that's no reason why she shouldn't stay away for a few days. What's that? Yes, I do. You know I do. Hey? Oh, well, it's all right, I suppose,
